1. Approve April minutes- approved
2. Treasurer update
  - a. Expenses/revenues since last meeting- registrations are fully paid
  - b. Update “ongoing” expenses
3. Coach “Rules Sheet for Refs” – Review updates from RRU/BRU- these updates now are in “ref language.” DC’s, please send these updates out. Coaches are required to hand to the ref at the beginning of the game.
4. T-shirt bid update- The Company awarded the bid is moving forward with sample t-shirt color selections based on the artwork for this year.
5. Finalize age group oaths for reading at beginning of matches- approved
6. 2nd Edition DC Training
  - AR fees were wrong on the website. Website updated as of the end of April.
  - * next to a game means needs attention
  - Overdue = 50 hours (ref is overdue for submitting his/her game report)
  - Be careful what you put in comments section and private notes
  - Please leave a footprint when a game has been changed and why
  - Loss of Player Control –Pay attention to accuracy when filling out this information as it may affect Model Leadership at end of season.
  - See the left hand side of the DC panel “roster accounts” tells you who has submitted rosters.
  - New to DC panel: Player call up-use to determine if player has exceeded the call up limit of 4
  - Duplicate jersey #- Be careful as ref could be just alerting you to the fact that a team used “tape” to adjust the #.
  - Be careful how you post partial games and any information
  - Send checks for fines as soon as possible to the treasurer, Sue Gurak
  - Mass cancellation by the league means no games can be played.
  - DC’s will get game feedback reports this year
  - Standard notes will be sent to the DC’s from the RDYSL President
  - If you are unavailable, let someone know whom he or she should contact while you are away.
